PART ONE: GETTING INFORMED

ENQUÊTER

The first part of the public hearing, in the presence of the resource persons invited to answer the questions of the commission and the participants, will provide information on the issues related to final waste management. It will be structured in such a way as to present not only general information on waste management, but also in different regional and territorial contexts. There will therefore be three groupings:

- Grouping 1: Montréal, Outaouais, Laurentides, Laval, Lanaudière and Montérégie;
- Grouping 2:
 - 2a: Capitale-Nationale and its neighbouring regions - Mauricie, Saguenay-Lac-Saint-Jean, Chaudière-Appalaches
 - 2b: Estrie, Centre-du-Québec, Bas-Saint-Laurent, Abitibi-Témiscamingue, Côte-Nord, Gaspésie-Îles-de-la-Madeleine
- Grouping 3: Nord-du-Québec and other sparsely populated or remote territories served by trench, northern or remote landfills.

AVISER

The public sessions will be held as outlined in the table below. Please note that all questions will be considered regardless of the grouping to which they may refer. Additional sessions may be added if required.

Ask Questions by Video or Phone

Anyone interested can ask questions by phone or video. It will be possible to do so by signing up in the register available on the BAPE website or by phone at 1 800 463-4732 starting Tuesday, March 23 at 7 p.m. and throughout the public sessions. A maximum of ten people can register for the first session.

PART 2: SPEAKING OUT

During the second part of the public hearing, which will begin on Tuesday, May 25, 2021, the commission will seek public input and suggestions. The commission will then hear from any individual, organization, group or municipality that wishes to express its views on the matter, whether in the form of a written submission or an oral presentation.

THE COMMISSION'S REPORT

The commission of inquiry's mandate began on March 8 and its report must be submitted to the Minister no later than December 22, 2021. Thereafter, the Minister will have 15 days to make the report public.

WHERE CAN I ACCESS THE DOCUMENTATION?
