Parc National du Mont-Orford Boundary Change Project The Commission of Inquiry Holds a Public Preparatory Meeting

City of Quebec, January 24, 2023 – The Commission of Inquiry on the Parc National du Mont-Orford Boundary Change Project invites the population to a preparatory public meeting on Tuesday, January 31, 2023, at 7 p.m. live on the BAPE website and on its Facebook page.

This meeting will explain the public hearing process in order to facilitate participation during the public hearing. It will also be an opportunity to meet the members of the commission, to learn more about the roles and the mission of the BAPE, the progress of the commission's work and the different ways to participate. A question period will follow the presentation.

It should be noted that questions concerning the issues of the project will be addressed during the first part of the public hearing, which allows citizens to ask questions and learn about the project.

Date: Tuesday, January 31, 2023
Hour: 7 p.m.
Place: Live on the BAPE website and on its Facebook page

For further information on participation in the BAPE works, interested individuals, groups or municipalities are invited to visit the BAPE website under the Participer tab. This section contains the necessary tools for preparing questions, writing briefs, and preparing oral opinions.

About the BAPE

Since 1978, the BAPE has been informing and consulting the population on projects and on any environmental issue that could have an impact on their environment or quality of life. As an impartial government agency, it investigates and advises the government in order to inform its decision-making.
